Event festivities will include the awards luncheon and professional development for fundraising professionals that will feature nationally recognized speaker and noted author Jerold Panas. Dr. Panas' two-part morning presentation will start with "The Future of Fundraising Isn't What it Used to Be" and conclude with "The 34 Things Nonprofits Should be Doing Right Now to Position Themselves for the Current Economy and The Recovery." Both morning sessions are geared for all levels of development staff and volunteers. Following the luncheon, Dr. Panas' presentation "Aim High, The Art of the Ask" is for senior development staff with 10 years or more of experience, chief executive officers and board chairs. The morning workshops will take place from 9 to 11:30 a.m. with a break to visit the vendor exhibition. The awards luncheon is scheduled from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m and the afternoon session will take place from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m.

National Philanthropy Day is presented by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, Greater Cleveland Chapter. For more information visit www.afpcleveland.org
